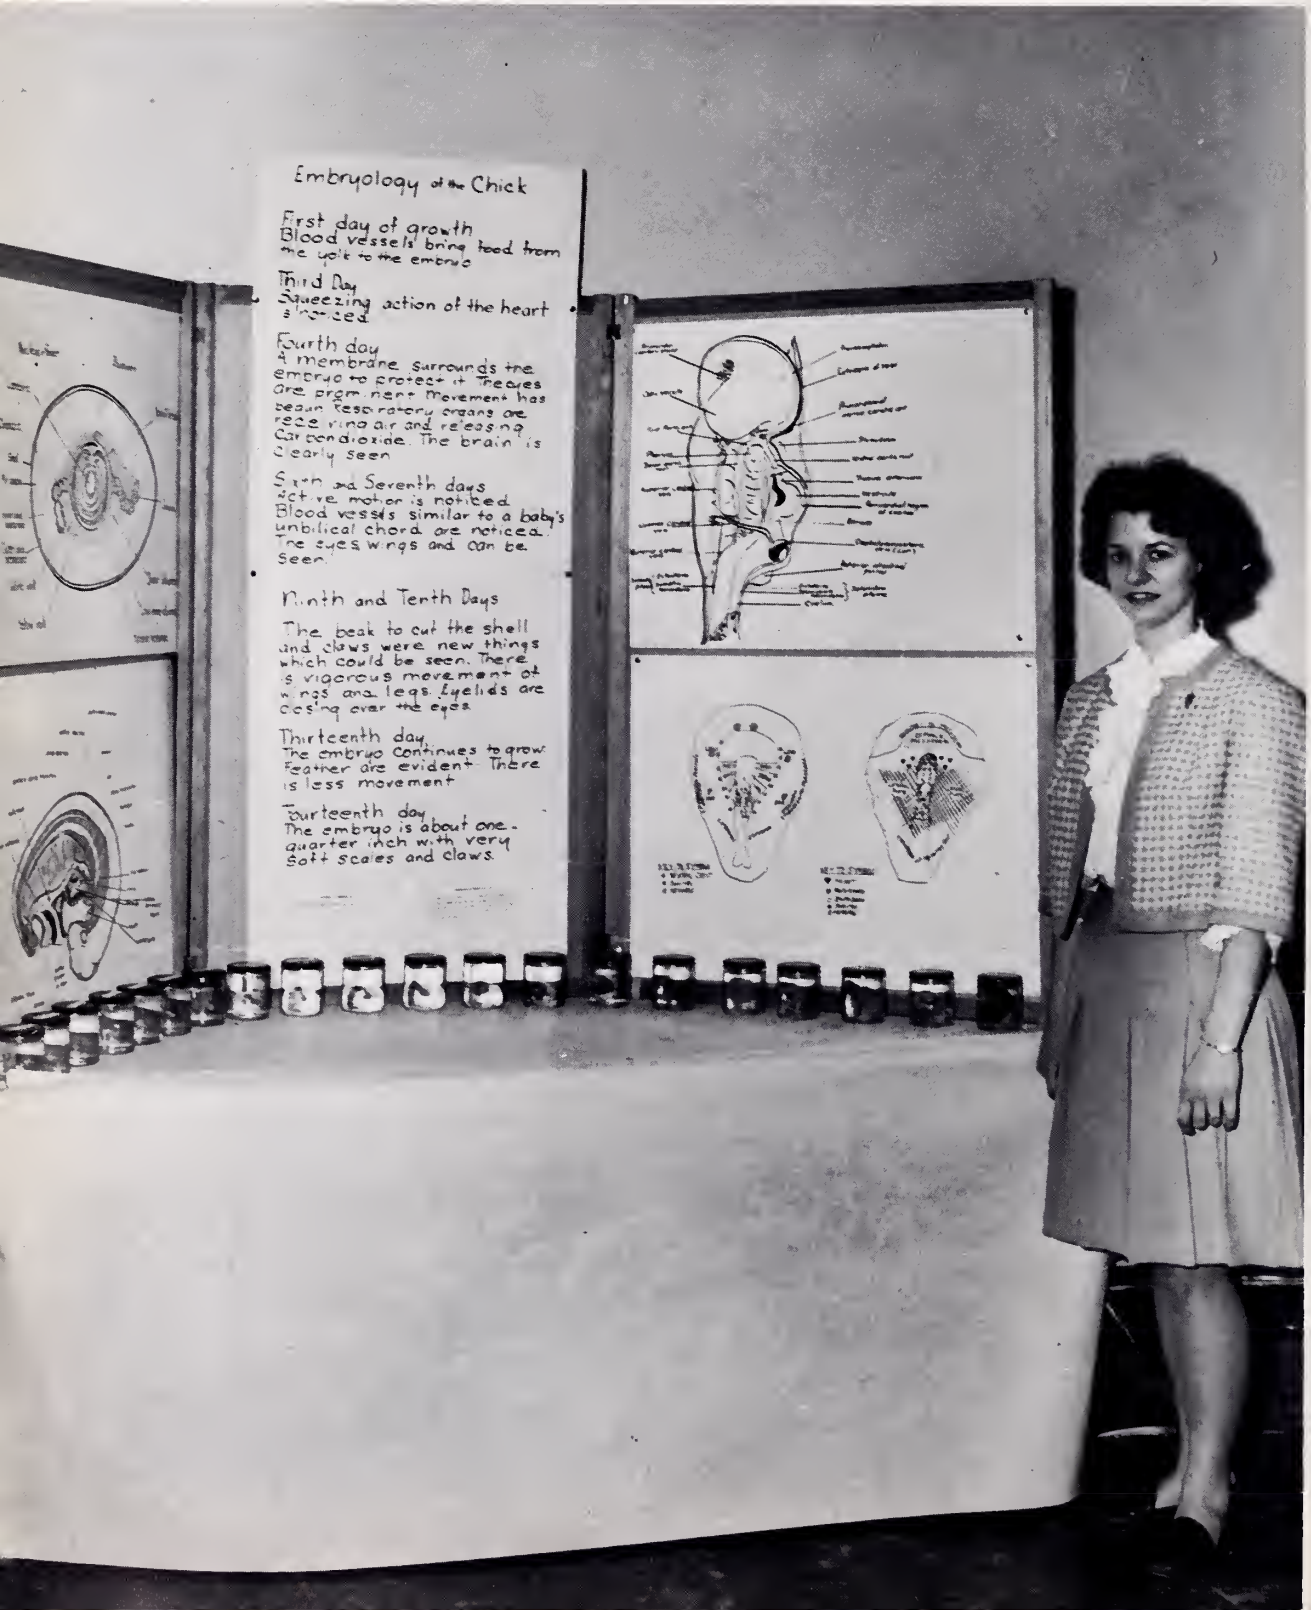
The Joy of Working Together

We honor this "car load" of boys for selling the most ads for our yearbook.

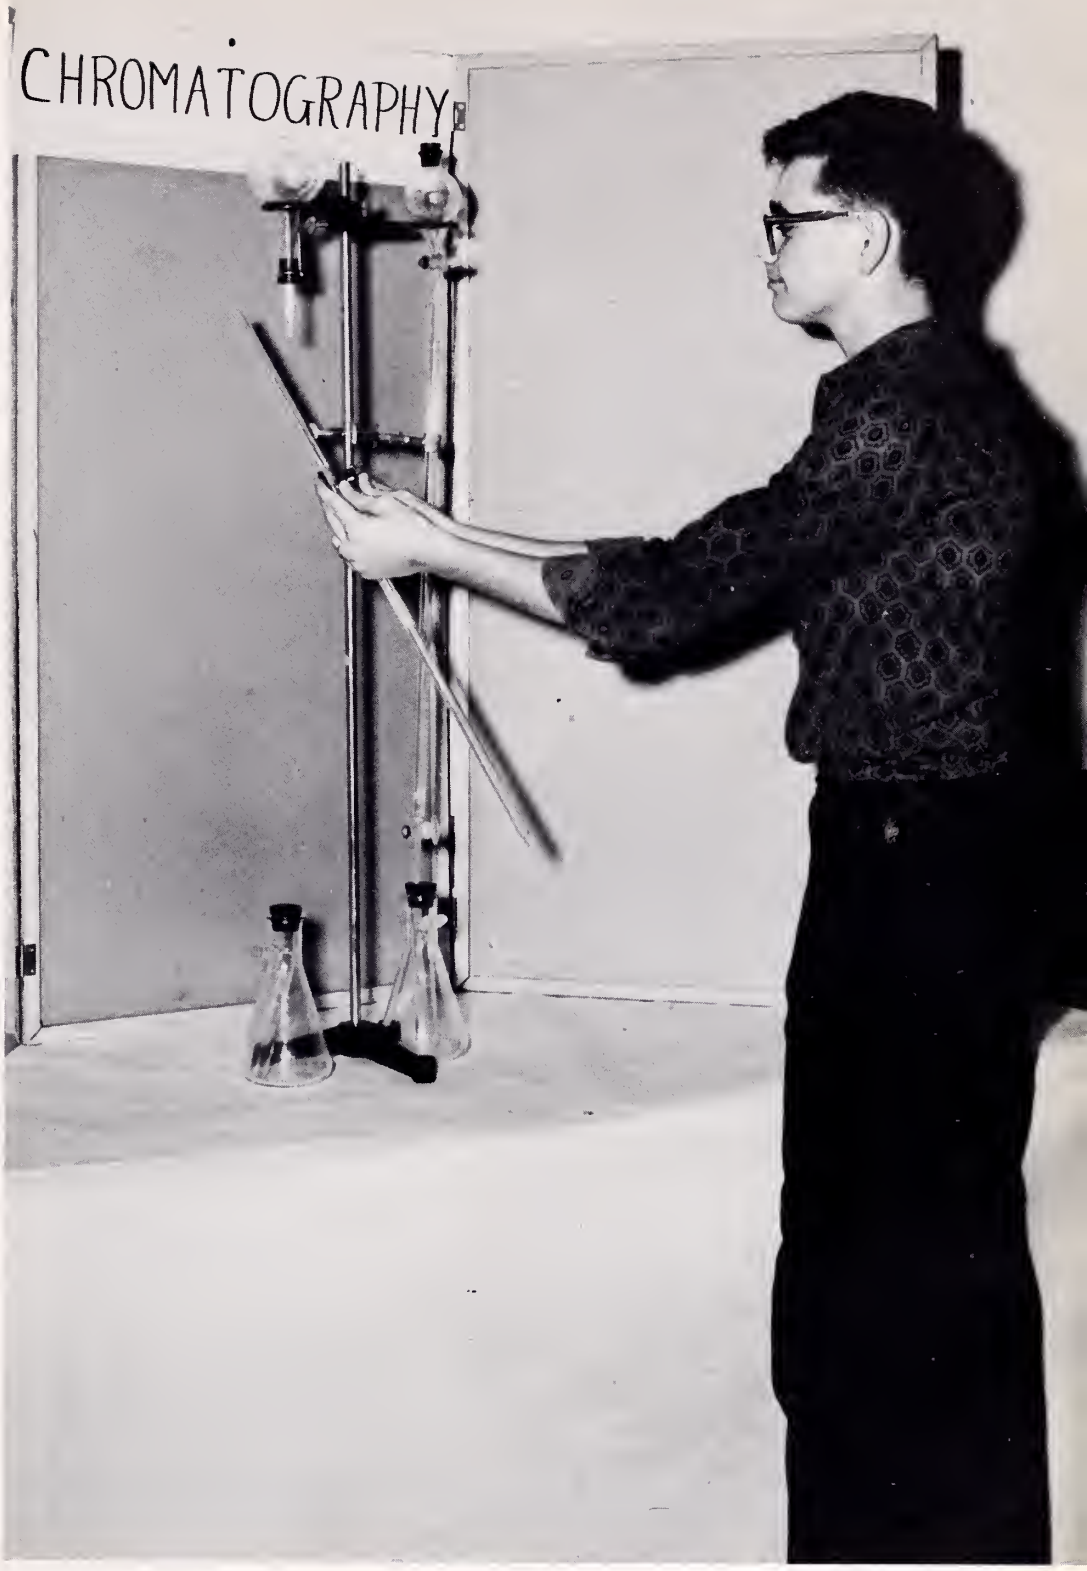
Miss Roop, Freida Salyer, Freddy Selfe, Jorita Prater, and Karen Chaffin represented CHS at the SCA Convention at Grundy, Virginia, on Oct. 19, 1963.

Science Opens Doors to Budding

Ruth Boris entered an exhibit in chick embryology and was the first student from Castlewood High School to win a first place at Clinch Valley College, Wise, Virginia. She also won the honor to go on to the fair at Roanoke College, Salem, Virginia. She said, "It was not only my work that won me the first place at Wise, but also the help from David Prater and my teacher, Miss Lexie Johnson."



Talents



Len Salyer entered an experiment in chromatography in the District Science Fair at Clinch Valley College, Wise, Virginia. He won an honorable mention at Wise, and he also had the honor to represent Castlewood High School at the Regional Science Fair at Roanoke College, Salem, Virginia. He was assisted in his experiment by Mike DiPerna.

FOREWORD

Within these many doors we trod,
And learn to respect man and God;
Each passing day brings something new
Because so many "doors" we pass through.

When time has given up the day,
And each must walk his separate way;
May this book be the door
To echo back the happy days of yore.

Mr. John Graybeal

We, the class of 1964, gratefully acknowledge the help and inspiration he has given us as our guidance counselor. He gave each of us words of counsel and encouragement when the road was rough and the journey long.

Helen Meade always has time to listen to our many "wants" and wishes. Because of her warm personality, friendliness, and willingness to be of service, Helen has endeared herself to all of us.

Mr. Campbell is our new assistant principal. Before accepting this position, he was a full-time teacher at C.H.S. He has given every minute a conscientious fulfillment of his responsibility as part-time teacher, attendance director, and assistant principal.

Through Many Doors

Realizing the doors are closing for the 1963 school year as we juniors serve as ushers for the commencement exercises, we wonder who will be our ushers for 1964. We also wonder how many doors must we open and close during our senior year.

Keep an open mind as you encounter new ideas and meet people with varied backgrounds. Keep your personal standards high. Take high school seriously, and you will gain the most from five of the most wonderful years of your life.

Being a senior is a little frightening; being a senior is a lot of fun . . . we hope . . . best of all, it's exciting, it's unique, anyway, it's the beginning to greater "doors."

The ushers are as follows: Kay Sluss, Garland Burnette, Peggy Hall, Bobby Joe Woods, Scotty Dixon, Bobby Bratton, Sue Stone, Jerry Glovier, Jackie Robinson, Shirley Dingus, Lois Taylor and Ruby Salyer.

These five years will be forever cherished by all of us.

FEATURES

"Rise and Shine" Comedy

These scenes are taken from the comedy, "Rise and Shine," which received a superior rating in the District Seven One-Act Play Festival at Abingdon, Virginia. Having won at Abingdon, the play was then eligible to go to the state festival in Charlottsville, Virginia. There the play again won top honors.

Those featured are Larry Hileman, Bill Litton, Virginia Chafin, and Henrietta Jenkins.

The comedy was directed by Mr. W. C. Robinson and Miss Connie Kilgore.

Homecoming

One of the most important events to take place each year at C.H.S. is the Homecoming; and the Homecoming at our school is really something. It is gay, colorful, exciting, and all in all - it is actually breathtaking. This year various clubs worked diligently to make their floats look attractive and original.

The band seemed to be at its best, the cheerleaders yelled louder than usual, and the spectators seemed slightly tense. The team played well; and last, but certainly not least, came the enchanted moment as the candidates for Homecoming queen, of the varsity and junior varsity squads, came floating across the field.

Janet Culbertson, a freshman, is chosen by the junior varsity squad to reign as Homecoming Queen for 1963. Captain Grant Marshall crowns Queen Jan.

Queens

Our Homecoming was held October 25, 1963, and the "Mighty Blue Devils" defeated the Honaker "Tigers" 57-0.

At half-time the Castlewood band gave an excellent performance on the football field. At this time, Rebecca Salyer was crowned Queen of the varsity team, and Jan Culbertson was crowned Queen of the junior varsity team. It is needless to say that both girls were radiant.

Immediately following the game there was a dance held in the school gymnasium. The queens and their courts led the first dance.

This was a memorable evening for all present, and no one can deny that our Homecoming was not a success.

Rebecca Salyer, a junior, is chosen by the varsity squad to reign as Homecoming Queen for 1963. Captain Freddie Selfe crowns Queen Becky.

All Books Aside . . .

With the end of school came the really big event of the year - the Junior-Senior Prom, which was held May 4, 1963, at the Downtowner Lodge Inn, Kingsport, Tennessee. Dance music was furnished by Becky Hyatt and her orchestra.

This prom was attended by more students than any other prom in the past. The couples parading around the pool under soft lights and seeing their reflections in the pool made this a night to be remembered.

Seniors Observe Dress-up Day

A pretty table is something to behold. One of the most helpful and interesting phases of the home economics course is the planning and preparation of such an occasion.

All eyes were on the seniors. There was no getting by because of the clicking of our heels. We wonder what the juniors thought when they caught us slipping around in our stocking feet. "Oh, our aching feet."

Approximately eighty-nine seniors enjoyed refreshments prepared by the Home Economics Department.

The Senior Class wishes to thank Mrs. Banner, Miss Mabe, and the home economics girls for the delicious refreshments, especially for those good homemade cookies.

SCA Presents Christmas Program

The Angel Gabriel (Virginia Grubb) appears to Zacharias (Larry Hileman) to tell him that his wife Elizabeth would bear a son who would be named John.

The Angel (Sue Dingus) appears unto the shepherds to announce the birth of Jesus. Bobby Bratton, Scotty Dixon, and Bobby Joe Woods were the shepherds.

Miss Roop, Larry Hileman, Garland Burnette, Bobby Bratton, Scotty Dixon, and Bobby Joe Woods make plans for the Christmas program. Everyone enjoyed "The Nativity" very much.

Bill Litton, Jackie Robinson, and Garland Burnette play the part of the wise men bringing their gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh to Mary (Linda Adams) and Joseph (Scotty White).

Shorthand Class Observes

Sue Ring, Sue Stone, Yolanda Carty, Peggy Huff, Pauletta Wood, and Amelia Jessee play shorthand bingo.

Since the shorthand class was made up of twenty-five girls, someone came up with the idea of having a dress-up day. By observing this, the girls realized that to be well-groomed is as important as to be efficient. The girls wore pretty dresses, skirts and sweaters, and white blouses, heels, gloves, and other matching accessories.

Janice Horne, Gail Salyer, Shirley Dingus, Connie Smith, Patricia Amburgey, and Joyce Bise type from notes.

Secretary Dress-up Day

Charlotte Jessee, Ruth Perry, Jewell Skeens, Peggy Hall, Gaye Patrick, Helen Ball, and Doris Minton take shorthand dictation from records.

Janice Layton, Janey Shomaker, Sondra Jessee, Lois Taylor, and Kay Sluss do their daily routine--dictation in Mr. Robinson's class.

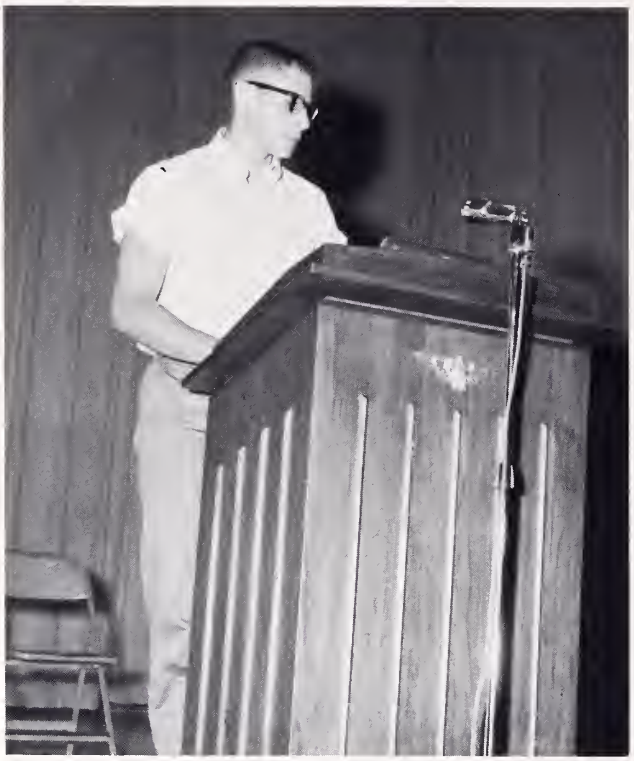
Allen Jessee, Abel Oney, and Sammy Gibson represented the FFA Chapter at V.P.I. at the state FFA Convention. Our team was placed tenth out of sixty-six judging teams.

Student Cooperative Association



Freddie Selfe, president of SCA

The SCA is sponsoring an assembly program each month, asking the clubs to be responsible for some of these programs. In order to have a more effective club program, the council asked each club to prepare a list of objectives at their first meeting, submit a copy to the SCA president, and work toward their achievement.

The SCA is attempting to finance a water cooler for the cafeteria. To do so a music company has installed a juke box in the cafeteria supervised by the SCA Council. There is also a machine in the hall to sell nabs and peanuts.

The words to the school song written in 1955 could not be found so, with the assistance of Mr. John Spence, band and choir director, the SCA has provided new words for the music.

FIRST ROW: Ruth Glovier, Donna Phillips, Sharon Rasnick, Fern Smith, Connie Phillips, Janice Huff, Martha Counts, Carroll Kiser. SCA Executive Committee

Members of the SCA Council patrol the lunch line to the cafeteria each day. A committee from the council is revising the SCA constitution. Four delegates from the SCA Council attended the Clinch Valley District Convention at Grundy High School in October.

The SCA prepared and delivered Christmas boxes containing food, toys, and clothing to needy families in the community.

The SCA is planning a beauty pageant in the spring to provide finances for state dues and sending delegates to conventions.

The SCA Council is attempting to develop a greater school spirit. They wish all students to realize that they are SCA members and that they play an important part in all its endeavors and accomplishments.

Rev. Johnny Kiser addresses the faculty and students.

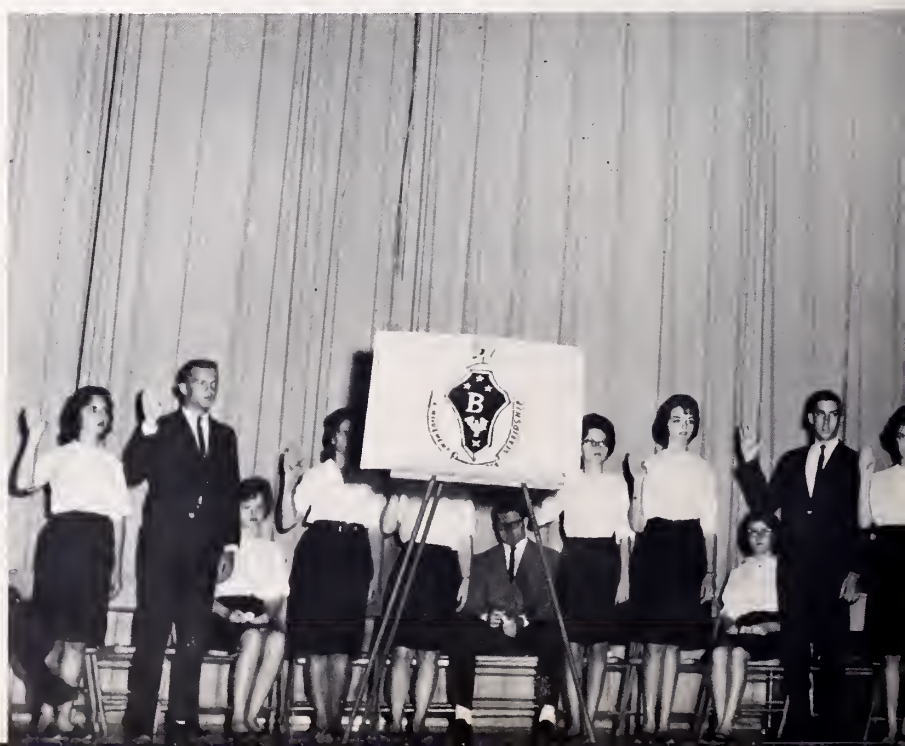
President Karen Chaffin gives the Beta pledge



The Beta Club held its induction service conducted by Karen Chafin for its twenty new members at the assembly program on Wednesday, October 23.

After the membership cards, certificates, and pins were given, the new and old members sang the Beta Club song.

Each semester the Beta Club collects the honor roll and posts it on the hall bulletin board.

For the Christmas objective, the Beta Club bought clothing for a needy child in the elementary school.

The spring objective is to sell candy to raise funds to send delegates to the Beta Convention in Roanoke, Virginia.

How Big Are Your Plans?

A great American once said: "Make no little plans. There is nothing in little plans to stir men's blood. Make big plans. Once a big idea is recorded, it can never die." How does it apply to you? How big are your plans?

Of one thing you can be sure. If the plan toward which you're working does not keep you interested, and fill you with excitement at the prospect of its accomplishment, your plan is too small. What is it you really want to do? Why don't you do it? Make big plans and work to their completion . . . and be sure to complete your education.

"With every good wish to you for a happy, productive life."

Through Many Doors

There are many doors, great and small. And behind each there lies many opportunities. Some open always, none of them always closed. "What's inside?" we asked and walked through. Well, what? We can ask ourselves now. What? Now that we've opened some of them and gone in; come out and gone in these five years. We know it was something of ourselves we found and that within something of ourselves stays.

Anyway, all at once we knew a little bit about why. We were out from under the suffocating mass of books. There was a direction to go, a way to do it, and we knew the way. We had learned. There was the door, the handle to turn, the latch to lift--and all these years we had been finding, learning, acquiring, filling our pockets with keys. Already the doors of tomorrow are opening. Through how many shall we pass?
